Almighty and everlasting God,
increase in us your gift of faith
that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before,

who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sleep Out event on November 15th at Bromley Parish Church, organised by the charity, Bromley Homeless, who are asking people to give up their bed for one night and to raise money for others who don't have the luxury of a home of their own. This is their biggest annual fundraiser and is vital for helping support the rough sleepers of Bromley through the harsh winter months.

Bromley Homeless are asking for people to sign up to sleep out, or pay £15 to join our evening meal. All of the money raised will go towards ending homelessness in our community - helping people like Daniel, who came to Bromley Homeless last winter, aged 84 with life-threatening illnesses after sleeping in a shed on his allotment for 20 years. Daniel now has his own home, and the charity want to continue doing the same for others like him.

To sign up to Sleep Out or to get a ticket for the evening meal please follow these links respectively.

Let us continue to pray -

✚ For lasting peace in the Middle East and healing for all communities and for the return of all hostages.

✚ For God to strengthen those in distress, provide for those in need and bring peace to lands around the world affected by war.

✚ For the church and its leaders in the UK. Pray that we would make the most of the freedom we have to worship God, share the gospel, and grow our church communities.
